

The 4th Biennale of the students of the Greek Schools of Fine Arts to be presented at the Attiko Metro Syntagma.

In the exhibition area of the Syntagma METRO the exhibition of the works of the students who participated in the 4th Biennale of the Greek School of Fine Arts will be inaugurated on Friday 9th February. The exhibition will remain open until the 26th February 2007.

This Exhibition started out as an annual Art competition, which was enacted in 1997 by the Maris Hotels and the newspaper “News Art”, under the auspices of the Athens School of Fine Arts, and a few year later it developed into a Biennale encompassing the participation of the students of the Department of Fine & Applied Arts of the Aristotelio University of Sa.lonica. In previous years, the awards given to the finest works, and the exhibition of the participating works was held in Crete.

The exhibiting of the works of the 4th Biennale, in which 130 students participated, was held on the 11th November and all works remained for 1 month in the exhibition are of the Creta Maris conference centre, Hersonissos, Heraklion, Crete. This is the first time that this institution has been moved to Athens.

Biennale is the only event in which both Greek Schools of Fine Arts, that of Athens and Salonica, have developed artistic dialogue and has been realized for the past 10 years.

The exhibition will be opened by the Minister of the Environment, Physical Planning and Public Works, Mr George Souflias, on Friday 9th February, at 20.00.

Sponsors of this exhibition are the ATTIKO METRO S.A., the insurance company LLOYDS, George Karavias and Associates S.A. and the transportation company S.A. Bergeles Ltd.
