

PRESS RELEASE
June 2015

Creta Maris: A place in common for Environment, Athletics and Health!

From June 18th to June 25th, Creta Maris became the place in common for Environment, Athletics and Health, hosting in its premises the 9th Panhellenic Conference of Organizations of Solid Waste Management, the Greek mission of the European Athletics Team Championships and the 14th World Congress in Fetal Medicine.

Following the accommodation of important personalities and conferences, in the past, Creta Maris Beach Resort continues this year by being a meeting point for ideas and people. In particular, the hotel hosted on 18th, 19th & 20th of June 2015 the 9th Panhellenic Conference of Organizations of Solid Waste Management, which was co-organized by Fo.D.S.A. (Organization of Solid Waste Management) of North PEDIADA S.A. O.T.A. and the Fo.D.S.A. Network. The conference was honored by the presence of the Minister of Environment Mr. Tsironis and the Mayors of many cities around Greece. Further, during this conference the Annual Sustainability Report 2014 of Creta Maris Beach Resort was presented.

Furthermore, from June 19th to June 22nd, Creta Maris was delighted to welcome the Greek mission of the European Athletics Team Championships, one of the leading athletic events, which was hosted, for the first time, in Heraklion, Crete.

Finally, from the 21st to 25th of June, the Convention Centre of Creta Maris Beach Resort hosts the 14th World Congress in Fetal Medicine, one of the most prominent medical conferences in its field, organized by the Fetal Medicine Foundation of Professor Kypros Nicolaides.

On the occasion of these conferences and the Greek Athletics Team accommodation, the CEO of Creta Maris Beach Resort, Mr. Andreas N. Metaxas stated: "Creta Maris has always acted based on its high values, which were adopted from the beginning of its operation. All these values compose its philosophy and its compass through today's demanding times. The hosting of conferences as well as people which advocate the same principles and aspire "a brighter tomorrow" make us very proud."
