Cine Creta Maris: An open-air cinema reopens in the center of Hersonissos

42 years ago, Creta Maris Beach Resort had launched "Cine Creta Maris", the first open-air cinema in the center of Hersonissos, offering the most pleasant memories to local and international audience. On Thursday, 15th of June 2017, it reopens, enabling residents of the wider region and tourists to enjoy the best summer movies in a comfortable and delightful environment.

Open-air cinema is a space that travels the mind and the soul, while awaking memories from our childhood and the old town of Hersonissos. In recent years, it is considered a culturally protected institution and this is the main reason why Creta Maris decided to reopen it.

"Cine Creta Maris" is located at Creta Maris Beach Resort premises, and has the largest space on a European scale, as well as all the necessary amenities for an ideal movie night. From Thursday, June 15, and throughout the summer, Cine Creta Maris will be one of the best choices for a night out with friends and family. General admission tickets will be priced at 8 euros, while a special ticket price of 5 euros will be also available for children, unemployed and seniors. Moreover, special prices of 6 euros will be available for group bookings of more than 15 people. Cine Creta Maris will present Premier Movies in English with Greek subtitles. A movie will be shown twice a day, while new movies will be shown every Thursday.

Creta Maris Beach Resort's open-air cinema aspires to become a favorite summer destination that will surpass the cinematic experience with its beauty and coolness.
